7) The draft only says that the pay attached to the appointment of Inspector General of Police is Rs.1,400, but this does not meet the case as Mr. Srikanteswara Aiyar is officiating in 2 appointments, and as the acting allowances on one of these is discretionary with Government, it is necessary to instruct the Comptroller in that behalf - vide Article 103, Mysore Service Regulations.

2. 8) The pay of the office of Inspector General of Police is Rs.1,400. Mr. C. Srikanteswara Aiyar acting in this appointment will get one-fifth of this sum, viz. Rs.280 as allowance for officiating as Inspector General of Police.

3. 9) The pay of the Excise Commissioner is Rs.1,400. If Mr. C. Srikanteswara Aiyar acted in this appointment alone, he would get Rs.1,000 his pay as Deputy Commissioner + an acting allowance of Rs.280 making a total of Rs.1,280 as salary. Under para 2 of Article 103, Government may fix up to a limit of Rs.640 as his allowance for officiating as Excise Commissioner. As Rs.1280 + 640, i.e. a total of Rs.1,920 may be considered excessive as salaries go in Mysore, it seems to me that the allowance payable under clause 2 of Article 103, may be fixed at Rs.320. This would make his salary for both the appointments together to stand at Rs.1,600.

4. 10) It may be argued that this is a case in which article 97, Mysore Service Regulations, might be applied but under all the circumstances of the case, in view of the length of time Mr. Srikanteswara Aiyar will be officiating as Excise Commissioner and in view also of the part of the year in which he so officiates when many heavy work will devolve upon him in all its details, so as to prevent loss of Revenue in the Contracts for the ensuing year, it will be evident that the officiating appointment cannot be regarded as merely a charge of the current duties of the office.
